Summary of Amoris Laetitia: On Love in the Family

By Holy Father pope Francis

Chapter nine: “The spirituality of marriage and the family” (313-325)

The ninth chapter is the last chapter and devotes to marital and family spirituality, which “is made up of thousands of small but real gestures” (AL 315). The Pope clearly states that “those who have deep spiritual aspirations should not feel that the family detracts from their growth in the life of the Spirit, but rather see it as a path which the Lord is using to lead them to the heights of mystical union” (AL 316). Everything, “moments of joy, relaxation, celebration, and even sexuality can be experienced as a sharing in the full life of the resurrection” (AL 317). He then speaks of prayer in the light of Easter, of the spirituality of exclusive and free love in the challenge and the yearning to grow old together, reflecting God’s fidelity (cf. AL 319). And finally the spirituality of care, consolation and incentive: the Pope teaches that “all family life is a ‘shepherding’ in mercy. Each of us, by our love and care, leaves a mark on the life of others” (AL 322). It is a profound “spiritual experience to contemplate our loved ones with the eyes of God and to see Christ in them” (AL 323).

In the final paragraph the Pope affirms: “No family drops down from heaven perfectly formed; families need constantly to grow and mature in the ability to love ... All of us are called to keep striving towards something greater than ourselves and our families, and every family must feel this constant impulse. Let us make this journey as families, let us keep walking together. (...) May we never lose heart because of our limitations, or ever stop seeking that fullness of love and communion which God holds out before us” (AL 325).

The Apostolic Exhortation concludes with a Prayer to the Holy Family.

CLEAN YOUR CLOSETS

Too many coats in your closet?? Let us collect Clean, slightly used coats during October. Drop your donations off in the dining hall and they will be given to Sharing and Caring Hands in Minneapolis for the needy, or if someone knows of other places that are in need. Please call RoseAnn at 952-955-1612 if you are available to help with this project. We can use a couple more volunteers.

Friends for Life Foodshelf (Watertown) is in need of the following items:
Canned corn - Baked Beans
Canned Fruits (mixed, peaches, pears)
Oatmeal

To receive daily Gospels and the Catechism: flocknote.com/gospel and flocknote.com/catechism
Read the Gospel of the Day or Read the Catechism of the Catholic Church

ROSARIES FOR MISSIONARIES

Please place your EXTRA Rosaries in the container in the back of church. The Serra Club of Wright County will give them to Missionaries around the world. Missionaries will teach people about the significance and power of the Rosary and then be able to give them a Rosary. Thanks for your help! Serra Club mission is to encourage and affirm vocations (priests, sisters, brothers, deacons, and seminarians) for our Catholic Church. If you would like to join us in our efforts, please contact Kate Theisen, VP of Vocations -- 952-955-1544

MCCL VOTING GUIDE

To assist voters like you, MCCL sent candidate questionnaires to candidates running for state and federal offices. Candidate questionnaire responses can be found in 2016 MCCL General Election Voter's Guide. If you don't know the pro-life candidates in your area, please review Voter's Guide.

If you have questions about voting, visit the Secretary of State's website devoted to voting, www.mnvotes.org. It will help you find your district, polling place, how to vote early and more. You can even view your ballot ahead of time.

Informed pro-life voters save lives. Learn where the candidates stand on life by viewing the MCCL Voter's Guide online. It is linked on our home page. Please share this link with your church, friends and family members!

Why Priesthood Sunday (October 30th) Is Important (from Serra International Website www.serraus.org) The reasons for this celebration (of Priesthood Sunday) should be obvious. The number of priests per Catholic has declined over the past 40 years. This makes it more difficult for individual parishioners to establish a close relationship with any one particular priest. When I was growing up, our pastor served in our parish for 34 years. My mom and dad knew him well. His presence and service were significant factors in the story of my own vocation. Furthermore, priests are no longer the only ones who offer pastoral care to our people. Yet without a priest, no parish is able to be a Eucharistic community. It is important to reaffirm the importance of the priesthood of Jesus Christ and its central place in the life of our Church.

-Archbishop John G. Vlazny, Archdiocese of Portland

Please pray for, encourage, and thank Father Joseph everyday but especially on Priesthood Sunday. Give him a note of appreciation, invite him for lunch or dinner, offer to be of assistance as needed, thank him for his vocation, etc. Let him know he is appreciated and loved!
