My brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ,

The Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker

St. Joseph has two feast days on the liturgical calendar. The first is March 19—Joseph, the Husband of Mary. The second is May 1—Joseph, the Worker.

“Saint Joseph is a man of great spirit. He is great in faith, not because he speaks his own words, but above all because he listens to the words of the Living God. He listens in silence. And his heart ceaselessly perseveres in the readiness to accept the Truth contained in the word of the Living God,” Saint Pope John Paul II had once said.

There is very little about the life of Saint Joseph in Scripture but still, we know that he was the chaste husband of Mary, the foster father of Jesus, a carpenter and a man who was not wealthy. We also know that he came from the royal lineage of King David.

We can see from his actions in scripture that Saint Joseph was a compassionate man, and obedient to the will of God. He also loved Mary and Jesus and wanted to protect and provide for them.

Since Saint Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Saint Joseph had probably died before Jesus entered public ministry.

Saint Joseph is the patron of many things, including the universal Church, fathers, the dying and social justice.

May 3-Feast of St. Philip and St. James

Philip left all things to follow Christ. His name is frequently mentioned in the Holy Gospels. St. James, Patron of hat makers, was called St. James the Less. He was also called a "Pillar" of the Church whom St. Paul consulted about the Gospel. Tradition has always recognized him as the author of the Epistle that bears his name.
