My brothers and sisters in the Christ Jesus,

The Prayer of the Faithful (Universal Prayer)
The response to the Word of God heard with faith is then expressed in the common petition, called the Universal Prayer, because it embraces the needs of the Church and of the world (cf. girm, 69-71; General Introduction to the Lectionary, 30-31).

The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council wished to restore this prayer after the Gospel and homily, especially on Sundays and feast days, so that, with the participation of the people, “intercession will be made for holy Church, for the civil authorities, for those oppressed by various needs, for all mankind, and for the salvation of the entire world (Constitution Sacrosanctum Concilium, 53; cf. 1 Tim 2:1-2). Therefore, under the guidance of the priest who introduces and concludes, the people, “exercising the office of their baptismal priesthood, offer prayers to God for the salvation of all” (GIRM, 69). And after the individual intentions, proposals by the deacon or a reader, the congregation joins its voice, invoking: “Hear us, Lord”.

Indeed, let us remember what the Lord Jesus told us: “If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you” (Jn 15:7). “But we do not believe this, because we have little faith”. But if we had faith — Jesus says — like the mustard seed, we would have received all. “Ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you”. And in this moment of the prayer of the faithful after the Creed, it is the time to ask the Lord for the most important things in the Mass, the things we need, what we want. “It shall be done for you”; in one way or another, but “it shall be done for you”. “All things are possible to him who believes”, the Lord said. What did that man respond, to whom the Lord had addressed these words — “all things are possible to him who believes”? The man said: “I believe, Lord. Help my little faith”. We too can say: “Lord, I believe. But help my lack of faith”. And we must pray with this spirit of faith: “I believe, Lord; help my lack of faith”. Worldly demands, however, do not ascend toward heaven, just as self-referential requests remain unheard (cf. Jas 4:2-3). The intentions for which the faithful people are invited to pray must give voice to the concrete needs of the ecclesial community and of the world, avoiding recourse to conventional and short-sighted formulas. The “universal” prayer, which concludes the Liturgy of the Word, exhorts us to turn our gaze to God, who takes care of all his children.

Rev. Joseph-Quoc Vuong

Important Note: the old trick but new way scammed.

Recently I learned some of our parishioners received an email “not from the pastor” but acting like the pastor asking to buy for him cards such as phone cards, gas cards or iTunes cards and then asking for the pin then simply so he can use as emergency. It is a scam. It is a hacked email. Please! Please! please! I am never asking you as such. If it was I, please talk to me first. Please hear my voice first then talk to others before you act. If I am sending you money please do not spend a penny before you receive my money first. If I am asking you for money, please consider as I do ask while I am at the podium or at the liturgy and the money being asked cannot be for me but for the church or charity. I thank you for your generosity that you may send me a gift but please do not send anything because you have received an email asking or acting like me. You may be scammed or hacked.

RCIA INFORMATION NIGHT!
Each year on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil, thousands are baptized into the Catholic Church in the United States. Parishes welcome these new Catholics through RCIA. RCIA is an extended period of evangelization (developing a relationship with Jesus Christ), catechesis (instruction in the faith), and spiritual formation (deepening in faith) in the Roman Catholic Church. Although it is primarily the process by which people become full members in the Roman Catholic Church, RCIA welcomes serious inquirers at all levels of knowledge, faith and intent—in other words, you do not need to feel like you are ready to become Catholic before you begin RCIA. Ultimately, though, the process culminates in the reception of one or more of the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist, and full membership in the Catholic Church.

At St. Boniface and St. Mary or Czestochowa, the formal RCIA process begins in early October and ends after Easter. RCIA Information Night will be on October 2, 2018. If you or someone you know would like to become part of RCIA at our parishes, please contact Father Joseph-Quoc Vuong.
