My brothers and sisters in the Christ Jesus,

A Teaching Mass

The Lord's Prayer

Thus, begins the Communion Rite, continuing the praise and petition of the Eucharistic Prayer with the community's recitation of the "Our Father". This is not one of many Christian prayers, but the prayer of the children of God: it is the great prayer that Jesus taught us. Indeed, consigned to us on the day of our Baptism, the "Our Father" makes resonate within us those same sentiments that Christ Jesus bore within. When we pray the "Our Father", we pray as Jesus prayed. It is the prayer that Jesus prayed, and he taught it to us; when the disciples said to him: "Master, teach us to pray as you pray". And this is how Jesus prayed. It is so beautiful to pray like Jesus! Formed by his divine teaching, we dare to turn to God calling him "Father", because we are reborn as his children through water and the Holy Spirit (cf. Eph 1:5). No one, truly, could call him "Abbà" — "Father" — in a familiar way without having been created by God, without the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, as Saint Paul teaches (cf. Rom 8:15). We must consider no one can call him "Father" without the inspiration of the Spirit.

What better prayer than the one taught by Jesus could prepare us for sacramental Communion with him? Apart from in the Mass, the "Our Father" is prayed in the morning and at night, in the Praises and in Vespers; in this way, the filial attitude toward God and that of fraternity with our neighbor help give Christian form to our days.

In the Lord's Prayer — in the "Our Father" — we ask for our "daily bread", in which we see a particular reference to the Eucharistic Bread, which we need in order to live as children of God. We also implore "forgiveness of our trespasses". And in order to be worthy to receive God's forgiveness we commit to forgiving those who have offended us. And this is not easy. Forgiving the people who have offended us is not easy; it is a grace that we must ask for: "Lord, teach me to forgive as you have forgiven me". It is a grace. Through our own efforts we are unable: to forgive is a grace of the Holy Spirit. Thus, as we open our heart to God, the "Our Father" also prepares us for fraternal love. Lastly, we again ask God to "deliver us from evil" which separates us from him and divides us from our brothers and sisters. Let us clearly understand that these requests are quite appropriate to prepare ourselves for Holy Communion (cf. GIRM., 81).

Indeed, what we ask in the "Our Father" is extended by the prayer of the priest who, in the name of all, implores: "Deliver us Lord from every evil, and grant us peace in our day". He then receives a sort of seal in the Rite of Peace: what he first asks of Christ is that the gift of His peace (cf. Jn 14:27) — thus different from worldly peace — may help the Church to grow in unity and in peace, according to His will; then, with the concrete gesture exchanged among us, we express "ecclesial communion and mutual charity before communicating in the Sacrament" (cf. girm, 82).

The gesture of peace is followed by the Fraction of Bread (cf. girm, 83; ccc., 1329). Performed by Jesus during the Last Supper, the breaking of the Bread is the revelatory gesture that allowed the disciples to recognize him after his Resurrection. We remember the disciples of Emmaus who, in speaking of their encounter with the Risen One, recount "how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread" (cf. Lk 24:30-31, 35).

The breaking of the Eucharistic Bread is accompanied by the invocation of the "Lamb of God", the figure which John the Baptist indicated in Jesus "who takes away the sin of the world" (Jn 1:29). The biblical image of the lamb speaks of redemption (cf. Ex 12:1-14; Is 53:7; 1 Pet 1:19; Rev 7:14). In the Eucharistic Bread, broken for the life of the world, the prayerful assembly recognizes the true Lamb of God, namely, Christ the Redeemer, and implores him: "Have mercy on us ... grant us peace". "Have mercy on us", "grant us peace" are invocations that, from the "Our Father" prayer to the Fraction of Bread, help us to prepare our soul to participate in the Eucharistic banquet, the source of communion with God and with our brothers and sisters. Let us not forget the great prayer: the one that Jesus taught us, this prayer prepares us for Communion.

To be continue next week: The Holy Communion

Pentacost Sunday

June is the Month of the Sacred Heart

June is the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a month dedicated to contemplating the love of God made flesh in the heart of Jesus Christ. We are invited in this month to consider the charity of the heart of Jesus and seek to grow in love for Him and for those around us. The Solemnity of the Sacred Heart is Friday, June 28th.

The devotion to the Sacred Heart dates to the 11th and 12th centuries, and greatly increased due to the visions of Sister Margaret-Mary Alacoque (1647-1690). In her visions, Jesus asked to be honored under the figure of His Heart of Flesh and asked for a devotion of expiatory love — frequent Communion, Communion on the first Friday of each month and the observance of Holy Hours.

The Holy Father's prayer intention for the month of June is Evangelization: That priests, through the modesty and humility of their lives, commit themselves actively to a solidarity with those who are most poor.

St. Pope John Paul II called Serra the "Vocation Arm of the Church." We support and affirm our priests, deacons, religious and those in religious formation.

Serra is a lay Catholic organization that promotes vocations to the priesthood and religious life and helps its members to be better informed laypersons.

We welcome you to join us and learn more about the Serra Club of Wright County and our ministry. Please call Marian Meyer at 763-497-2371 or Kate Theisen at 952-955-1544 for more information. We usually meet the second Thursday evening of each month at Christ the King Retreat Center in Buffalo. Also, please visit Serra's website www.serraus.org

Inputs needed for LAB Deanery Meeting on June 11th

The Archbishop's Lay Advisory Board representatives from each parish in our deanery are meeting on June 11th to discuss issues, priorities, needs, and positive things going on in our parish and deanery. Please call or email Kathleen Motzko with your questions or inputs for the meeting.
